

November 3, 2015
Bond and District Additional Assistance
Election Information

Proposition 432 - $22 million General Obligation Bond

150+ facility projects across all schools

- Building renovations and improvements
- Improvement of grounds
- Energy efficiency upgrades

The tax rate is not expected to increase.

Proposition 433 - District Additional Assistance (capital)

Renewal of current override

$2 million annually for seven years

- Technology equipment and software to equip each student with at least one Internet access device - laptops, Google Chromebooks, iPads, etc.
- Teaching and learning resources - curriculum-related resources; hardware and software like iPods, heart rate monitors, science-related probeware, LEGO robotics kits; e-texts, web-based subscriptions and apps; library/media center resources and technology; classroom projection devices, etc.
- Infrastructure - server hardware, network improvements, VoIP communication system upgrade, etc.

The tax rate is not expected to increase.